

First row:

1. The first issue of "Okay" Polish gay magazine, published since 1990.
2. The first issue of "Gayzine", Slovenian magazine published since 1985.
3. The first issue of "Lambda", a Czechoslovakian magazine published in 1990.
4. Slovenian magazine "Revolver", issue No 9, 1993.
5. "Fioletowy Puls" ("Violet Pulse") Issue No 2(4), December 1995. Early lesbian magazine published in Gdansk, Poland.
- 6-7. "Viks" magazine published in 1984. The first queer publication in Yugoslavia.
8. "Pandora", Slovenian lesbian magazine, Issue No. 5, 1995.

Second row:

- 1-3 "The Forum". The first queer magazine in Belarus started in 1998, which later changed the name into "Lambda Forum".
4. "Tema" ("na teme" is slang for "queer") The first Russian queer publication that appeared in Moscow in February 1990.
5. The first issue of Czech queer magazine "Hlas", published in 1931.
6. "FURIA PIERWSZA" One of the first lesbian feminist publications in Poland. Published by Ola-Archives Association - Polish Lesbian Archives established in Warsaw in 1996.
7. "DIK Fagazine", issue No 11, 2017. The magazine, founded by Karol Radziszewski in 2005, combines queer archival research with contemporary art contributions. Queer Archives Institute has been the magazine's official publisher since 2015.